

Ellicott Manors sneaks past Elk's

In the Town of Lancaster Mens Division 1 softball the Ellicott Manor scored two runs in the bottom half of the last inning to come away with a 5 to 4 victory over the Elk's. The Elk's held a 4-1 lead heading into the bottom of the sixth inning behind the solid pitching of Russ Rzezut and the hitting of Phil Klock who went 3 for 3 and scored 2 runs but they couldn't hang on. The Manor was led in there comeback by Mark Steinel going 2 for 2 with a homerun and Jeff Miodinski's 2 hits including the game tying RBI. Greg Honsberger ended the game with a sacrifice fly to keep the Manor in a tie for first place.

In other action:

Sal's 8 Alumni's 2

Sal's kept pace with the Ellicott Manor for the Division title by taking a 3 to 2 lead after the first inning and then shutting the door on Alumni's the rest of the way. Ryan Wereski provided all the offense that was needed as he went 3 for 5 with a triple and 5 RBI, Jerry Landahl chipped in an additional 3 hits and scored twice. Steve Landahl continued his remarkable year on the mound allowing only 6 hits to pick up his eight win on the hill.

Division 2 Aero Collision 26 Macaroon's 20

Aero Collision came out on top in this slugfest by pounding out 38 hits and having just enough defense to get by Macaroon's. Dave Earsing was swinging a red hot bat as he went 5 for 5 with a homerun and 7 RBI, while Corey Cline added 4 hits including a 2 run homer. Macaroon's stroked 28 hits of their own but it wasn't enough as they fell a half game behind Aero in the race for first place.

JP'S 11 Kone King 4

JP'S used solid defense and a quality pitching performance by Brian Musilak to fend off the winless Knoe King squad. Bart Nawojski had a remarkable game at shortstop and collected three hits on the night including a two run homer, Sam Vaninni added a long ball as JP'S stayed in the mix for the top spot in the division.

Co-Ed Division Halpins Heroes 7 Hidden Shamrock 6

Halpin's Heroes scored 3 unanswered runs in the final innings to come away with a hard fought victory, Matt McCoy was the sparkplug hitting two solo homeruns to push his team to their sixth win of the season. Sean Halpin tossed a steady game on the hill while helping his own cause going 3 for 3 with a two run dinger. The Hidden Shamrock was led by Joe 'Benchpress' Necci who went 4 for 4 with a tape measure homerun.

Magruders 22 GBP-Dubois 2

Magruders ended this game quickly jumping out to 14 to 1 lead after only three innings, Josh Greenhauer hit a grand slam and finished with 6 RBI while tossing a three hitter to earn the win. Randy Bryant seems to be out running father time as he went 3 for 5 with a two run triple while his daughter Emily picked up 2 hits and stole two bases.

Men 37 and over Hidden Shamrock 15 GBP-Yankees 14

The Hidden Shamrock remained in the hunt for the final playoff spot with much needed victory as they fended off a furious rally by the Yankees who pushed six runs across the plate in the final inning but came up just short. Ron Ruffino hit two gargantuan homeruns and also made a diving catch to end the rally and Billy Maher was perfect at the plate going 4 for 4 with two doubles for the Shamrock. Kevin Basin picked up 3 hits in the losing effort.

Macaroon's 6, 17
Desiderio's 10,10

The top two teams squared off in a doubleheader with Desiderio's taking game one, Larry Jarmuz kept Macaroon's in check allowing only 3 runs through the first six innings, Jerry Manhard and Pat Wypij combined for six hits with Manhard driving in four runs. Paul Zack homered in the loss for Macaroon's.

In game two Macaroon's exacted their revenge with a 17 to 10 win to remain atop the division, Paul Zack and Don Wutz each hit two homeruns knocking in a total of 8 runs. The long ball was the order of the game as Andy Sedor added a three run homer for Macaroon's. Larry Jarmuz picked up 3 hits in defeat.
