League Starts Up 14th Year

A cool but bright evening opened up year 14 as the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department woman's outdoor sand volleyball league started their season up on May 27. Playing on three courts at the Walden Ponds, 18 teams in three divisions will vie to see who are the queens of the sand for 2008.

"A" League: Nancy Girls- Frank's open up the year with a two to one win over the Polish Falcons. Frank's Follies takes two of three from Green Buffalo Pub-Kugler, while Hit 'n Run does likewise to Green Buffalo Pub-Wohlrab.

"B" League: At Your Fingertips pulls out the brooms in a three to zero whitewash of the Basil Ford Outlaws. Frank's sweeps the Spinoffs three to zip, while De Ronde takes three from Smith's Gun Shop.

"C" League: The Volley Dolls come out fighting with a three to zero win over the Golden Girl's. CLC& Company take two of three from Sgt. Pepperoni's, while the Desperate Housewives take three from Green Buffalo Pub.
