Lancaster Parks & Recreation Volleyball

Past the Halfway Mark

The dawning of February sees the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department adult volleyball leagues into the home stretch as we've passed the halfway part of the 2008-2009 season. With a couple months to go, teams are slowly jockeying for their run at a playoff spot.

Two such teams in fine shape so far are our leaders in our Men's Tuesday Night League Craig Lindauer's Independents, and Beth Maute's Side Out Sisters our leaders in our ladies "C", as both teams enjoy nice leads in their respective divisions.

Men's Article

Tuesday Night League: Division leader Lindauer Independents take out the Green Buffalo Pub Wife Dodgers three to zip, while Sal's takes the measure of Frank's by the identical three to zero score.

Wednesday Night League: Division leader Ellicott Manor has a slight struggle against Green Buffalo Pub-Klock before taking three from them. Simme's-Gooch is a comfortable second as they swept Green Buffalo-Kicak three to zero. Frank's is now third as they took three from the Elma Grille. The Chucksters move closer to .500 as they captured two of three from Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz.

Women's Article

"A" League: Smiling Roxie Weber has a lot to smile about as Frank's-Weber takes three from Green Buffalo Pub-Kugler to stay perfect on the year. Frank's-Rudz breaks out of mini-slump with a two to one win over the Alumni Sports Bar. Fassel's Upholstering pulls a minor upset as they take two of three from the second place Green Buffalo Pub-Kremer squad. Ellicott Manor tightens their grip on fourth in the division with a two to one win over the Polish Falcons.

"B1" League: Division leader Desiderio's ends a night of sweeps in "B1" with a three to zero conquest of Frank's Golden Babes. Eddie Ryans starts off the night taking three from Frank's-Wohlrab, while Maryan's sandwiches a three to zero triumph in the middle of the night over Frank's Follies.

"B2" League: Division leading Basil Ford Outlaws return from their bye with vengeance in a three to zero win over Smith's Gun Shop. DeRonde picks up some much needed wins with a two to one triumph over the Volleydolls. The second place Spinoffs takes two of three from Hubert Auto Service.

"C" League: Division leader Side Out Sisters is up by six games as they sweep Sgt. Pepperoni's three to zip. The Nite Crew gain in the standings with a two to one win over the fourth place Villagers. CLC&Co. pulls the surprise of the night taking two of three from the second place Desperate Housewives.
