Race Tightens Up

The end is in sight as the Lancaster Parks & Recreation & Forestry Department's adult volleyball leagues are down to their last weeks. With most of our divisional leaders enjoying comfortable leads, the battle for playoff spots, especially fourth place are reaching a fever pitch.

Congratulations this week go out to Lisa Wilczak's Basil Ford Outlaws, who clinched the title in our ladies "B2" league. Way to go Lisa.....

Men's Article

Tuesday Night League: Division leader Lindauer Independent's sweep Frank's three to zip to hold onto first in the division. Green Buffalo Pub-Batt takes out the Green Buffalo Pub Wife Dodgers by an identical three to zip score to stay four back of the leaders with a showdown on schedule for the tenth. Sal's tightens the grip on third by taking two of three from the Attack.

Wednesday Night League: Division leader Ellicott Manor inches closer to a divisional title with a three to zero defeat of the Elma Grille. Team Norm solidifies their hold on fourth in the division as they swept away the Chucksters three to zero. In a tight emotional match, Frank's takes two of three from a tough Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz, while in a battle of Green Buffalo Pub squads, Phil Klock bests Jack Kicak two to one.
