Two More See the Light...

A freak wind storm blew out a transformer cancelling just about our entire ladies slate of volleyball on March 11th as Beth Maute's Side Out Sisters take the "C" title in our Women's league. Congratulations to Beth and her team. Also kudos go out to Stephanie Kremer, who's Green Buffalo Pub squad takes home the co-ed title.

Men's Article

Tuesday Night League: In a showdown for first place, division leader Lindauer's Independents takes two of three from 2nd place Green Buffalo Pub-Batt to put themselves in a great position to clutch the division. In double header action, Sal's and Green Buffalo Pub Wife Dodgers split six games, giving each a playoff spot. It's too little too late for the Attack as they took two of three from Frank's.

Wednesday Night League: Division leader Ellicott Manor takes a giant step to the division crown taking two of three from the second place team Simme's-Gooch. Team Norm goes into third place with a three to zero defeat of Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz. The Chucksters enjoy a good evening with a three to zero sweep of the Elma Grille, while in a good match Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak sweeps three from Frank's-Jacus.

Women's Article

"A" League: Due to the power failure at Lancaster High School only a couple of sets in the "B1" and "B2" leagues were played. In "B1", Frank's Follies takes three from Frank's Golden Babes to move into third temporarily. In "B2" the Spinoffs take two of three from Smith's Gun Shop to tighten their grips on second while hurting Smith's Gunshop's playoff chances.

"C" League: The Side Out Sisters take the title with a three to zero win over the Villagers. Sgt. Pepperoni's looks solid in third after taking two of three from the Desperate Housewives in a possible playoff preview. In a good set, the Nite Crew takes two of three from CLC&Co.
