Season Comes to an End

The gyms are silent now as the 2008-2009 edition of Lancaster Parks Recreation & Forestry Department's adult volleyball has come to an end. Forty eight teams and four hundred and thirty two players have once again enjoyed evenings of competition and exercise as their ever popular Lancaster Parks Recreation and Forestry Department program has once again helped make the winter months a bit more bearable.

Wednesday Night League: In our regular playoff series, Mike Gembar division champ Ellicott Manor opens up their playoff series with a two to zero win over the fourth place Frank's (25-8, 25-19.) Dennis Gooch's second place Simme's takes out the third place Green Buffalo Pub of Phil Klock also by a two to zip score (25-21, 25-21.) In a final for the ages, Ellicott Manor takes the first game 25-13, while Simme's rallies for a 27-25 decision in the second. In the deadly set, Ellicott Manor prove they are the cream of the crop with a 25-18 win over Simme's and add the playoff title to their regular season crown.

The Directors Cup for the fifth to eighth place team in the division saw Team Norm take out the eighth place Green Buffalo Pub squad of Jim Sledz two to zip in their semi's (25-13, 25-11.) The Chuckster's opened their playoff fine with a two to zero win over the Elma Grille (25-16, 25-10.) The final of the Director Cup saw the Chuckster's take the first game 25-11. In the end however, Team Norm roared back 25-22 and 25-23 to capture the hardware for the Director Cup.

Women's Article

"A" League Final: Roxanne Weber's Frank's came into the finals after an incredible forty one to one season. Once there, they forced a tough Green Buffalo Pub squad, captained by Stephanie Kremer, who finished second in the division. Frank's opened the finals with a 25-19 win. Green Buffalo Pub roared back in the second to win 25-17, setting up a one game winner take all for the playoff crown. In a back and fourth match, Frank's added the playoff trophy to the mantel place with a 25-21 win.

"B2" League: With the third place Spinoffs and the fourth place Hit 'n Run squad off for the playoff title, you could say this was our surprise final in ladies volleyball. In the end, Hit 'n Run captained by Nancy Valentino, contained its fine play in the playoffs with a 26-24, 25-18 win over the Spinoffs to take home the hardware.

"B1" League: Division champ Desiderio's opened up their playoff run with a two to one win over (25-9, 23-25, 25-9) a determined fourth place Frank's Follies. The other semi saw second place Maryan's take a marathon set from Eddie Ryan's 24-26, 30-28, 25-20 in an instant classic in Lancaster Recreation Department volleyball. The final saw a semi-rested Desiderio's slow to start as Maryan's opened with a 25-23 win. Desiderio's roared back to capture the second game 25-6. The final match saw Desiderio's put it all together and pull away late in a 25-18 win to capture the playoff crown.
