Men Open Up Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department Volleyball Season

Year forty six is up and in the record books as the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department adult volleyball leagues are underway. This year will see forty eight teams in three leagues (Men's, Women's & Co-Ed) hit the courts for yet another winter for volleyball.

This week action focus's on our Men's leagues and our co-eds. Next week will see our ladies hit the courts as they open up the night before Thanksgiving.

Men's

Men's Tuesday Nigh League: The brooms were out early as all the sets ended in a three to zero score. Frank's zips the Attack three to zero, Jay's Barber Shop takes three from Green Buffalo Pub-Batt and the Green Buffalo Pub-Wife Dodgers dispose of Sal's three to zip.

Wednesday Night League: This years new Wednesday Night League will feature a A&B league with crossover play at mid-season.

"A" League: Ellicott Manor-Gembar opens up their season with a tough three to zero victory over Green Buffalo Pub-Klock. Simme's-Schlesinger starts off on a good note as they sweep Frank's-Jacus three to zero.

"B" League: The Chucksters take two of three from the Elma Grille, while Green

Buffalo Pub-Kicak takes two of three from Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz.
