A Week Off

It's the winter break in the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department's adult volleyball leagues. With races tight in all leagues going on, whoever comes out of the break on a good note, will have a decided advantage as the final weeks of the season play out.

Our spotlight team as we head into our break are our leaders in Women's "C" Julie Roberts Volleydolls who lead their division by five games and our leaders of our Co-Ed League Green Buffalo Pub-Kremer who lead the division by three games.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: The division leader Jay's Barber Shop opens up an eight game lead on second place Green Buffalo Pub-Batt by taking two of three from them. The Green Buffalo Pub Wife Dodgers sweep Sal's three to zero to grab a comfortable hold on third. Frank's hold onto fourth after a two to one conquest of the Attack.

Wednesday Night "A" League: Division leader Ellicott Manor gets back into divisional play with a three to zero sweep of Green Buffalo Pub-Klock. SIMME's is two back of the leaders after their sweep of Frank's.

Wednesday Night "B" League: It's still tied at the top as both our co-divisional leaders took two to one losses this past week. The Elma Grille took two of three from the Chuckster's, while Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak defeated Green Buffalo Pub-Nuwer two to one.
