Drip Drip Drip.....

A leaky roof at the Middle School was the only thing slowing down teams as March Madness is upon the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department's adult volleyball leagues.

This wet floor has pushed back our Men's "B" League a week, but the other leagues forged on with the playoff races tightening up.

The weeks featured teams are Shirley Suttons Aud who hold a five game lead in the Ladies "B1" and Mike Gembar's Ellicott Manor who hold a one game lead in Men's "A" with one week to go in the regular season.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: The division leader Jay's Barber Shop clinches a tie for the division with a three to zero sweep of Frank's. Green Buffalo Pub-Batt is a solid second after taking two of three from Sal's. The Attack pulls a slight upset in taking two of three from the Green Buffalo Pub-Wife Dodgers.

Wednesday Night "A" League: Division leader Ellicott Manor drops two of three to Simme's but still holds the division lead with one week to go. Green Buffalo Pub-Klock tunes up for the playoffs with a two to one win over Frank's.

Wednesday Night "B" League: Did not play due to roof leak at Lancaster Middle School.
