Halfway Home

We've reached midseason in the majority of the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department's adult volleyball leagues. With play now into late January, teams are jockeying for positions as the Dog Days of February are on the horizon.

This week hi-lighters include new division leaders in two of our women's leagues, first loss for Jay's, and a countdown of Men's Wednesday night crossover play.

The spotlight teams for this week are Craig Lindauer's-Jay's Barber Shop who lead our Men's Tuesday Night League at 22 and two, and Jessica Kremer's Green Buffalo Pub, who top ladies "A" league at 17 & four.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: Sal's take two of three from Jay's Barber Shop, dropping them from the ranks of the undefeated. Green Buffalo Pub-Batt is in second as they sweep the Attack three to zip. The Green Buffalo Pub-Wife Dodgers are secure in third after a two to one win over Frank's.

Wednesday Night "A" League: It was David slaying Goliath as B Leaguers Green Buffalo Pub-Nuewer took two of three from Frank's. Simme's rolls into inter-divisional play as they sweep the Chucksters three to zero. Green Buffalo Pub-Klock takes three from the Elma Grille while Ellicott Manor does like wise to Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak.
