Lancaster Recreation Department Volleyball Come To an End.....

The gyms are now silent as the fifty teams of the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department adult volleyball leagues have ended their season. With our men playoffs on April 9th, year forty five of the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department adult volleyball league are now in the history books.

The department would like to thank the 400 players of the leagues, their sponsors, our officiating staff and the school district and the school principals for their support over the year.

Men's Playoffs

Wednesday Night League: Division champion Sal's starts off the playoffs with a two to zero win over Frank's (25-11, 25-19). Second place Fireside Inn-Gooch does in Green Buffalo Pub-Klock likewise two to zip (25-12, 25-21) to set up a classic final between the two powerhouses of the league. In the final, Fireside Inn comes out smoking winning the first game 30-28. Division Champs Sal's showing what they were made of, come back to take the next two (25-18, 25-19) to take home the playoff hardware.

Director Cup: Our consolation playoff series saw the Chucksters open the playoff with a two to one win over Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak (25-19, 25-21). Team Tachikara also pulls out the brooms with a two to zero conquest of the Elma Town Grille (25-18, 25-16). The final for the Directors Cup saw a great match as the Chucksters took the first game 25-23. The second game went to Team Tachikara 26-24 setting up one game, winner takes all.
