Season in Early Stages

We are a couple of weeks into the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department Adult Volleyball leagues for 2007-2008. Early season kinks are being worked out as teams get use to each other as they prepare for the long grind ahead.

Our spotlight teams this week include our division leader in our Men's Tuesday Night League & Women's "A". The Attack managed by Grant Amey and Pam Jansma's Ellicott Manor and Roxanne Weber's Frank's who co-lead our Women's "A" League, have all gotten off to a great starts realizing games in November mean as much as games in March in the standings.

Men's Volleyball

Tuesday Night League: The Attack roars to eight and one with a three to zero sweep over Frank's. The Green Buffalo Pub Wife Dodgers take two of three from Sal's in a spirited match. An early season showdown of perennial powers sees Jay's Barber & Beauty Shop take two of three from Green Buffalo Pub-Batt.

Wednesday Night League: Sale's goes to eight and one with a three to zero sweep of the Elma Town Grille. Fireside Inn-Gooch rolls with their three to zero win over Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz. Frank's is at seven and two after disposing of Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak two to one, while Team Tachihara takes two of three from the Chucksters.
