

Town of Lancaster Recreation
December 13, 2007
Article #1 - Girls Basketball League

Town of Lancaster Girls Hoops Season Begins

The Town of Lancaster Recreation Departments Girls Basketball season kicked off their 2007-2008 season at Lancaster Middle School this past Thursday. Competition heated up as teams hit the hardwood. Results of play are as follows:

LIBERTY 36

Danielle Notto and Sara Selk combined for 20 points as they started out the season in double digits and paved the way for the Liberty in a 36-16 win against the Mercury. Kayla Grazen added eight points while Jennifer Kaite added six and Alissa Cibella chipped in with a bucket for the win. Scoring for the Mercury were Erica Braunschweig (10), Krista Blask (four) and Caitlyn Tauriello (two).

MERCURY 16

SPARKS 36

Hannah Fish had the hot hand and was in double digits scoring 14 points for the Sparks as they beat the Silver Stars 36-25. Katelyn Wolfchief added eight points while McKenzie Kueglewind and Maria Damasiewicz divided eight points. Kelsey LaPiano, Stephanie Kaemph and Rachel Wilcox had a bucket apiece in the victory. Scoring for the Silver Stars were Kim Siresi (12), Chandler Valley (10), Ashley Favata (four), Katie Kochmanski (three), Allie Davis (two) and Hallie Woronowski (two) and Chelsea Barbaro (two).

SILVER STARS 35

Standings for December 20, 2007

Sparks	1-0
Liberty	1-0
Silver Stars	0-1
Mercury	0-1

Articles and Schedules are available online at www.lancasterny.com*