

Town of Lancaster Recreation
February 14, 2009
Article #9 - Girls Basketball League

Lancaster Rec Girls Basketball Playoffs to Begin

The Town of Lancaster Recreation Departments Girls Basketball league will begin playoffs on Thursday, February 28. The results of play for Thursday, February 14, are as follows:

SILVER STARS 33

Kim Siresi and Chandler Valley joined the double figure club with 13 and 12 points respectively as the 3rd place Silver Stars beat the 1st place Liberty 33-32 in this close contest. Ashley Favata finished with eight points for the victory. Scoring for the Liberty were Danielle Notto (12), Kayla Grazen (10), Alissa Cibella (four), Sarah Selk (four) and Jennifer Kaite (two).

LIBERTY 32

SPARKS 35

It was yet another close match up as the 2nd place Sparks beat the 4th place Mercury 35-33. Katelyn Wolfchief had a stellar performance in double digits scoring 22 huge points while her sister Nicole added six points. Hannah Fish had four and Rachael Wilcox added two while Kelsey LaPiano chipped in with one for the win. Scoring for the Mercury were Erica Braunschweig (11), Casey Setlock (eight), Caitlin Tauriello (eight), and Emma Roush (six).

MERCURY 33

Playoffs – Thursday, February 28, 2008

11-15 Year Old Girls LMS#1 6:30pm - 1st Liberty vs 4th Mercury

11-15 Year Old Girls LMS#2 6:30pm - 2nd Sparks vs 3rd Silver Stars

Championship Game

Thursday, March 6 - Lancaster Middle School #1 6:30pm

Note:

*Articles and Schedules are available online at www.lancasterny.gov